ORIGINALS GIFT SHOP

ADDRESS: 2 Berger Street

FEATURE: This privately owned and operated Gift Shop has a variety of local crafts, carvings and NWT diamonds. The Gift Shop has a long history of supporting local artists and crafters and buys from several of the Beaufort Delta communities. This is also a must stop for anyone wanting a unique and northern purchase.

MOE'S STATIONARY & GIFTS

ADDRESS: 90 Mackenzie

FEATURE: A long-time locally owned and operated Gift & Stationary store carries a range of unique Northern inspired gifts, souvenirs, and houseware items.

MAVIS'S CRAFT SHOP

ADDRESS: 39 Breynat

FEATURE: Mavis Jacobson is well connected with artists and crafters from throughout the NWT. For years Mavis ran the Inuvialuit Craft Shop before going on her own and opening a Craft Shop out of her house. With a good supply of locally made slippers, mitts, parkas and other products - a shopper is sure to find what they are looking for. If Mavis doesn't have it she can contact someone and get it made specifically for you.

GWICH'IN CRAFT STORE

ADDRESS: 3 Council Crescent

FEATURE: Gwich'in Craft Store featuring handmade arts & crafts from Gwich'in communities in the Beaufort Delta including Tsiigehtchic, Fort McPherson, Aklavik, & Inuvik.

Located in the reception area of the Gwich'in Tribal Council, this is a not to be missed stop to find a locally made handcrafted Indigenous creation.
