Uncertain Futures: Indigenous and Northern Futures in Chaotic Times

Uncertain Futures: Indigenous and Northern Futures in Chaotic Times

The world is changing rapidly: climate change, mass migration, rapid urbanization, and intense technological innovation. Where do northern and indigenous communities fit in this chaotic and unpredictable world? Present trajectories point to welfare dependency, outmigration, and over-reliance on government investment. This presentation considers ways that indigenous and northern communities can challenge this pattern and can produce more prosperous and autonomous economic futures.

Concert The Legend of George Jones with Duane Steele

Sponsored By Gwich'in Tribal Council

Finish your evening by a unique and special concert taking place in Chief Jim Koe Park at 9PM sponsored by the Gwich'in Tribal Council : The Legend of George Jones with Duane Steele!

Arctic Development Expo attendees will have access to a reserved seat inside the Pavilion.

The legend of George Jones – featuring Duane Steele; a special salute to the man considered to be the greatest country singer of all time. Channeling the very essence of George Jones, award-winning singer/songwriter and #1 hit-maker Duane Steele and his band will take you on a journey of Jones' incredible life through stories and songs.

Duane Steele is among Canada's top country recording artists and songwriters with a professional career dating back to 1984. The multi-award-winning artist has released five studio albums and one greatest hits album, and has charted multiple singles on the Canadian country singles charts, including the number one hit "Anita got married". Duane has toured the world headlining his own shows and opening for some of the hottest acts in country music including Shania Twain, Terri Clark, Trisha Yearwood and Sammy Kershaw. Duane's pure vocals and authentic country sound make him the ideal artist to pay tribute to the legendary George Jones.
